“Jamila was always prepared when arriving on set, she was sensitive to the actors’ needs whilst also paying great attention to the detail of the scene. She worked closely with the director and the other departments to achieve a scene and sequence everyone was happy with. I wouldn’t hesitate to work with Jamila again and highly recommend her.”

Nadine Marsh-Edwards, Executive Producer, Riches

“Jamila was a joy to work with. She has great attention to detail, sensitivities and is amazing at helping to pull out the right energy in intimate scenes. Jamila helped make everyone feel comfortable. I enjoyed our collaboration and cannot wait to work with her again!” Sebastian Thiel, Director, Riches

“Working with an intimacy coach is so important in providing a safe space for the actors, so that discussions around intimate scenes can happen in a pragmatic, practical and rational way. Working with Jamila was great, she went through every relevant scene with the actors and made everyone aware of their limits whilst putting them completely at ease. This in turn meant that the actors could have fun and freedom on set because everyone knew where they were at and could do their jobs knowing that there wouldn’t be any surprises.” Amanda Jenks, Executive Producer, Riches

“Jamila, as our intimacy co-ordinator, did a superb job. On arriving on set she was personable and relaxed, which instantly had the effect of making the rest of us relaxed. Her dynamic with the various actors in all scenes was pitch perfect; she made sure that everybody was comfortable without being too prescriptive. She made sure at all times that every actor had an open line to her and her alone, in case anything felt wrong or exploitative and yet she also managed to retain a sense that we were all part of a larger team.

The final result was a set of scenes that everyone is really happy with – both directors and every cast member. But also, with Jamila’s help we achieved an atmosphere on set during the filming of these scenes that was both respectful and relaxed; pretty much exactly what we wanted on those days.

I couldn’t recommend Jamila enough as an intimacy co-ordinator, and indeed the next time we shoot a film or TV show that has intimate scenes, she will be the top of our list to call” Declan Lawn, Co-Director, Co-Writer, Rogue Agent

“I worked with Jamila on the feature film Graphic Designs. This was the first time I’d worked with an intimacy co-ordinator on a film, so was unsure what to expect. By the end of the film, I knew that we could not have made the film without Jamila. She put everyone, cast and crew at ease and all the actors spoke to me about how helpful and professional she was. I would not hesitate to work with Jamila again and have already recommended her to several other producers.”

Andy Edwards, Director, Graphic Designs

“Jamila was a great asset to our intimacy coordination on set – she assisted with using the correct language for intimacy and nudity requirements in the cast contracts, researched and provided the appropriate modesty patches and ensured these were issued appropriately and was a great help to the cast and director in choreographing the scenes in a safe and secure manner.” Rebecca Matthews, Producer, Graphic Designs
